International Association of Administrative Professionals®

Letter from the President

Dear Members,

I hope everyone is having a good summer. I know I am. It was fun holding the July meeting at the Tulsa Air and Space Museum. If you were not there, you missed a great time. I'm looking at the possibility of holding our August 26 Board Meeting there, so you may get another opportunity to see it.

This month's program should be full of information as we learn...ESTATE PLANNING...What to do with what you've got before you go! I love the title of the presentation and look forward to hearing Cynthia Bradley's executive, Thom Irwin, tell us how to plan for the future. Be sure to bring plenty of note taking materials, because I'm sure he will have some ideas we would never have considered.

We are looking at various ways to raise funds for the chapter this year and one has been raffle tickets for the American Idol Live Concert Tour. Have you sold any tickets? If you have, bring your funds and receipts to the August 12 Chapter Meeting and give them to me. The winner will be drawn on Tuesday, August 26.

We have great programs lined up this term and are looking for full houses each month. Let's make this a record breaking year with everyone having perfect attendance.

Yours with Excellence in Action,

Brenda K. Dietzfeld

What's Happening in the Association

In today's ever-changing business environment, professionals need every advantage to stay on top. Professional certification shows employers, clients and associates... commitment as a professional.

The International Association of Administrative Professionals® (IAAP®) offers two professional ratings.

The Certified Professional Secretary® (CPS®) and Certified Administrative Professional® (CAP®)

Both ratings are the recognized standards of proficiency...

the Capstone of the administrative professional.

For more information about Certification, local study groups, literature, testing dates and fees.
